

I Hate You, Humanity

Humanity I hate you because you would rather scrutinize your peers
than embrace their hand;

because you spend more time moping around searching for your cellphone than searching for your companions;

Humanity I hate you because you broadcast shootings in the most brutal way but urge for peace and love;

Humanity I hate you because you preach about fairness but strive to be unfair;

because at the end
you'll come strolling in too late saying I love you
when the lifeless lay; breathlessly

Humanity, I hate you.

I SEE HUMANS
BUT NO HUMANITY....!
